

How dare you ever -consider- weakening Do Not Call? We need this protection to avoid utter harassment from telemarketers. What they were doing was a crime and it was about time someone said so. Don't you dare undo the work Codey has done for us.